

GMC A-Jamil

DEPARTMENT OF OPHTHALMOLOGY
SEND UP TEST FOURTH YEAR MBBS CLASS FOR THE SESSION 2009

SEQ's PAPER

Max. Marks; 45

Time Allowed; 2 Hours

- 1) a) Define trachiasis.
b) Name its four treatment options.
c) Name its most important complications.
- 2) a) What is proptosis.
b) Enlist four common causes of bilateral proptosis.
c) Give its two important complications.
- 3) a) Define and classify pterygium.
b) Name two important treatment options for recurrent pterygium.
- 4) A patient comes with complaint of redness, watering, pain and photophobia. On examination corneal ulcer with branching pattern is seen.
a) What is your most likely diagnosis?
b) How will you treat this case?
- 5) a) Define cataract. Name different methods of cataract extraction.
b) Name three most common late complications of cataract surgery.
- 6) A myopic patient comes with complaint of sudden loss of vision from one eye. He also gives history of flasher and floaters from the same eye for last few weeks.
a) What is your provisional diagnosis?
b) Give your management plan.
- 7) Parents bring a two years child with complaint of unilateral white pupil.
a) What is most common cause of white pupil at this age?
b) Name two important malignant intraocular tumors of any age.
- 8) a) Define papilledema.
c) Enlist four other causes of bilateral optic disc swelling.
- 9) a) Define and classify amblyopia.
b) Name atleast three treatment options of amblyopia.